HISTORY:	The tournament, which was originally named The McGladrey Classic in 1958, was rebranded in 1995 when McGladrey LLP united with fellow firms of its network in order to better reflect its global capabilities and changed its name to RSM. Connected each of the first five years solely on the Seaside Course, the 2005 RSM Classic began employing its sister course, Plantation, and increased its field from 112 to 136. This is the 57 th anniversary of the tournament.
